selfassured...we have presented soo much information about orgone energetics monsoon n josh have spelt it out a number of times

if you research this site, yourself will learn for yourself...
try stepping out and treating yourself with self assured knowledge from self aquired imformation fed's...???...confiscate orgonite... from where and from whom ?? orgonite is a piece maker/ healer not weapon police are the first inline to benefit from an orgone rich enviroment please elaborate or is that too much effort for you to post anything more were're only amature researchers only presenting relative self-evident information that has been adventured by and from many contrasting reality explorer's just trying to fill a very incomplete cumulative truth/ reality mozaic if my humble sense's serve you an explanation of orgone energetics i would go all dowy and say...

"orgone brings a refreshing sense of clarity and dynamic that makes it a welcome guest for everything and everyone that it envelops"

...but i won't

Yo...G'day you happy mob ! So who's jumped in and made a few of these profound little energy devices ???
They really do change the harmful spin of anything you wave over...great tasting, safe food and water for starters.

The mix I've been using is kelp from Tasmania...on the box says seaweed..used as an animal feed supplement
so has obviously been washed and ground...The beachsand photo was a slipup on the zoom, but synchronisity reveals quartz.

Josh recently suggested try part of the original pillow formula..5 quartz, crushed and powdered..equal parts.
Amethyst, Smokey quartz, Rose quartz, clear quartz and citrine...1 tablespoon of powder to one litre of kelp..
Recently whipped up a batch...wow..appears very strong ... worth noting.
Would love to find some kelp washed up..dry without washing, cut fine and powder in the blender..next holiday, maybe.

Recently purchased beautiful Flower of Life silicone mould from the US..Sacred Geometry and orgonite well known energy bonus

This one has copper swarf with tiny quartz points in pattern , Lapis lazuli and garnet in the centre,

The next is brass keyshavings, quartz again with copper interplay pattern

Sacred geometry always in play in these charging plates.

Of course, either acorn caps or seashells incorporate that phi resonance through their hollow cavities..amplifying energy.

Best of all, a bit of pillow mix in the base of orgonite pocket pieces and pendants make them multi-functional. Great when out and about.. can have food and water security with just an extended wave..

Cheers....get out there and make a few for family and friends !!!

Oh, almost forgot...the flower of life mould...cost an arm and a leg, but what a beauty !!! well worth it.
